

APPROVED BY
Constituent Conference
March 20, 2020

Changes APPROVED BY
Extraordinary Conference
September 05, 2021

The Charter
International Union of Public Associations "Global Tae
Kwon Do Federation (GTF)"

Moscow city

1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1.1. The International Union of Public Associations "Global Taekwon-Do Federation (GTF)" (hereinafter - the "Federation") is a non-profit corporate organization established in the form of a federation of public associations, uniting on voluntary membership in its composition legal entities - public associations, created to represent and protection of common interests, in order to achieve socially useful goals, as well as other goals specified in this Charter.

1.2. The full name of the Federation in Russian: International Union of Public Associations "Global Tae kwon Do Federation (GTF)".

Abbreviated name of the Federation in Russian: МФ ГТФ

The name of the Federation in English: Global Tae Kwon Do Federation.

Abbreviated name in English: GTF.

1.3. The Federation carries out its activities in accordance with the Constitution of the Russian Federation, the Civil Code of the Russian Federation, the Federal Law "On Public Associations", the Federal Law "On Non-Commercial Organizations", other current legislation of the Russian Federation and this Charter.

1.4. The Federation builds its activities on the basis of the principles of equality of its members, legality, transparency, voluntariness, and self-government.

1.5. The Federation operates on the territory of Russia, the Republic of Moldova, The Kyrgyz Republic, Ukraine, Kazakhstan, as well as on the territory of other states where its member organizations operate, in accordance with the generally recognized norms of international law, international treaties, the legislation of the respective states and this Charter.

1.6. Location of the permanent governing body of the Federation: Volgograd Region, Volgograd.

2. LEGAL STATUS OF THE FEDERATION

2.1. The Federation is considered created as a legal entity from the moment of its state registration in accordance with the procedure established by law, owns separate property and is responsible for its obligations with this property, can acquire and exercise civil rights and bear civil obligations on its own behalf, be a plaintiff and defendant in court.

2.2. The federation must have its own balance sheet and / or budget.

2.3. The federation is created for an unlimited period of time.

2.4. The Federation has the right, in the prescribed manner, to open accounts with banks on the territory of the Russian Federation and outside its territory, with the exception of cases established by federal law.

2.5. The Federation has a round seal containing its full name in Russian and an indication of its location. The Federation has the right to have stamps, letterheads with its name.

The Federation has an emblem that has five colors - white, black, red, blue, yellow. The emblem is a circle painted in blue with the image of three intersecting red and white globes inside with an inscription consisting of 2 Korean characters in transliteration for "Tae Kwon Do", between which there is a clenched fist bordered along the contour by a black stripe with an inscription on the outside side of the "GLOBAL TAEKWON-DO FEDERATION" circle, also bordered by a black stripe.

2.6. The Federation has the right to join international public associations, acquire rights and bear obligations corresponding to the status of these international public associations, maintain direct international contacts and relations, and conclude agreements with foreign non-profit non-governmental organizations.

2.7. The Federation has the right to create its structural subdivisions - organizations, branches and representative offices, both on the territory of the Russian Federation and in foreign states on the basis of generally recognized principles and norms of international law, international treaties of the Russian Federation and the legislation of these states.

The rights of the Federation and its structural units for property management are determined by the current legislation and documents of the Federation.

2.8. Interference in the activities of the Federation of state and other bodies, except for bodies authorized by law, is not allowed.

3. OBJECTIVES, SUBJECT AND DIRECTIONS OF FEDERATION ACTIVITIES

3.1. The goals of the Federation are:

— development of Tae Kwon Do according to the GTF version (hereinafter referred to as Tae Kwon do GTF) in the countries of operation Federation;

— coordination of the activities of members of the Federation for the development of Tae kwon Do GTF in the world, the widespread use of Tae kwon Do GTF for the comprehensive harmonious development of the individual, the formation of a healthy lifestyle;

— attraction of the general population to Tae kwon Do classes according to the GTF version.

3.2. The subject of the Federation's activities is the implementation of measures aimed at achieving the goals of the Federation.

3.3. The Federation, in achieving the goals set, carries out the following activities:

— promoting the development of physical culture and sports;

— combining the efforts of members of the Federation and all interested organizations in the dissemination and development of Tae kwon Do according to the GTF version on the territory of the countries of the entire world community;

— creation, development and improvement within the Federation of a system of training qualified coaches, instructors, referees and other sports personnel in Tae kwon Do GTF;

— organization of training sessions for Tae kwon DO GTF for children, adolescents, youth and adults;

— establishing and strengthening ties with sports organizations developing Tae kwon Do GTF in all countries of the world;

— promotion of scientific and practical research aimed at the study and development of Tae kwon Do GTF;

— assistance in the preparation, publication and distribution of information and reference materials, popular sports literature, visual agitation, film and video products and other special products on Tae kwon Do GTF in the manner determined by the current legislation, including international;

— organization of the insurance process for athletes in the course of their preparation for sports competitions, games and tournaments in Tae kwon Do GTF and during the period of their holding in the manner determined by the current legislation, including international;

— organization of meetings of sports teams, athletes, coaches, sports leaders to solve urgent problems of Tae kwon Do GTF;

— holding competitions, tournaments, youth sports events, demonstration performances in Tae kwon DO GTF within the framework of the Federation;

— assistance in the organization and holding of international tournaments, championships, championships and other competitions and meetings in Tae kwon DO GTF, in the manner determined by the current legislation, including international;

- development and approval of the calendar of the competitions held by the Federation, regulations on them, as well as the schedules of training camps and other events of the Federation;
- representation of athletes, coaches, sports judges and other specialists in Tae kwon Do GTF for assignment of sports titles and awards of the Federation in the prescribed manner;
- organization of the process of making attributes, including commemorative and award items;
- assistance in the creation of special training and methodological centers Tae kwon Do GTF with the involvement of leading domestic and foreign specialists;
- assistance in the creation of specialized foreign structures for the training of trainers and other professional specialists in Tae kwon Do GTF;
- organization and implementation of internal certification of coaches, instructors, judges, athletes;
- holding international scientific-theoretical and scientific-practical conferences, symposia, seminars and other events on the development of Tae kwon Do GTF;
- implementation of information activities in electronic and print media and information networks;
- issuance of passport and certification documentation confirming the level of technical skill of athletes and the status of organizations;
- carrying out certification activities within the Federation in order to determine and confirm the level of technical skill of athletes, the formation for these purposes of special bodies and groups carrying out certification, the development of internal Regulations, Rules, Regulations and other documents regulating the certification process;
- development of internal (local) regulations governing the activities of the Federation;
- creation of targeted funds at the expense of targeted contributions of members of the Federation for the implementation of the activities of the Federation.

3.4. Foreign economic activity in the above areas is carried out in the manner prescribed by law.

3.5. In the interests of achieving the goals provided for by this Charter, the Federation may create other non-profit organizations in the manner prescribed by law.

3.6. Interference by government bodies and their officials in the activities of the Federation, as well as interference by the Federation in the activities of government bodies and other officials, is not allowed, with the exception of cases provided for by the Federal Law.

3.7. The Federation can carry out income-generating activities only insofar as it serves to achieve the goals for which it was created and corresponds to the specified goals.

3.8. The Federation carries out the following income-generating activities:

- other sports activities;
- activities of sports clubs;
- activities for the organization of exhibitions and conferences.

4. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE FEDERATION

4.1. For the implementation of the statutory goals, the Federation, in accordance with the current legislation, has the right:

- freely distribute information about their activities;
- participate in the development of decisions of state authorities and local self-government bodies in the manner and volume provided for by the legislation of the Russian Federation, as well as the legislation of other states where its members operate;
- hold meetings, rallies, demonstrations, processions and pickets;
- establish mass media and carry out publishing activities;
- represent and defend their rights, the legitimate interests of their members, as well as other citizens in government bodies, local governments and public associations;

- exercise in full the powers stipulated by the laws on public associations;
- come up with initiatives on various issues of public life, make proposals to government bodies.
- have other rights in accordance with the legislation of the Russian Federation.
- 4.2. The Federation is obliged:
 - comply with the legislation of the Russian Federation, the generally recognized principles and norms of international law relating to the scope of its activities, as well as the norms provided for by its charter;
 - annually publish a report on the use of its property or ensure the availability of familiarization with the specified report;
 - annually inform the body that made the decision on the state registration of the Federation, about the continuation of its activities, indicating the actual location of the permanent governing body, its name and data on the leaders of the Federation in the amount of information included in the unified state register of legal entities;
 - provide, at the request of the body that makes decisions on state registration of public associations, decisions of the governing bodies and officials of the Federation, as well as annual and quarterly reports on their activities in the amount of information provided to the tax authorities;
 - admit representatives of the body that makes decisions on state registration of public associations to events held by the Federation;
 - assist representatives of the body that makes decisions on state registration of public associations in getting acquainted with the activities of the Federation in connection with the achievement of statutory goals and compliance with the legislation of the Russian Federation;
 - inform the federal state registration body about the amount of funds and other property received from foreign sources, which are indicated in paragraph 6 of article 2 Federal Law "On Non-Commercial Organizations", on the purpose of spending these funds and the use of other property and on their actual spending and use in the form and within the time frame established by the authorized federal executive body.
 - bear other obligations in accordance with the legislation of the Russian Federation.

5. MEMBERS OF THE FEDERATION, THEIR RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

5.1. Members of the Federation can be legal entities - public associations (non-profit organizations) - National Tae kwon Do GTF federations and (or) clubs developing Tae kwon Do GTF, provided that there is no National Federation on the territory of the country, established in accordance with the requirements of the relevant statutes, dividing statutory the goals of creating the Federation, recognizing and fulfilling the Charter of the Federation, participating in the activities of the Federation, promoting the activities of the Federation, including by financing the programs and events carried out by the Federation. Members of the Federation retain their organizational, property and legal independence.

5.2. The procedure for admission to the membership of the Federation and exclusion from the number of its members is determined by the Conference of the Federation. Admission and expulsion from the membership of the Federation is carried out by the Presidium of the Federation.

5.3. The decision on admission to the membership of the Federation is made by the Presidium by a qualified majority of 2/3 votes of those present in the presence of a quorum, on the basis of the decision of the supreme governing body of the candidate for membership in the Federation, with a copy of the charter and an application for joining the Federation addressed to the General Secretary of the Federation.

5.4. Members of the Federation have equal rights and equal responsibilities.

5.5. National Tae Kwon Do GTF federations (clubs) established in accordance with the requirements of the law have the right to apply for membership in the Federation, provided that:

- the application is made in writing and signed in the prescribed form by an authorized person of the respective national federation;

— the corresponding national Tae kwon Do GTF federation has or is awaiting official recognition from the supreme sports body of this state (if there is no such body, state registration is sufficient);

— the corresponding national federation (club) in writing undertakes to comply with the requirements of the Statute and the rules of the Federation, annually hold national Tae kwon Do GTF championships and participate in the World Championships and Championships;

— the national federation (club) undertakes to pay the fees established in accordance with the decision of the Federation Conference;

— the head (president) of the national Tae Kwon Do GTF federation (club) is the official representative of the respective state.

5.6. The submitted documents are accepted and studied by the Presidium of the Federation, which subsequently makes a decision on admission or refusal to admit to membership in the Federation.

5.7. At the same time, if there are several Tae kwon-Do GTF federations on the territory of one state, only one of the aforementioned national federations has the right to become a member of the Federation.

5.8. In the event that the national Tae kwon-Do GTF federation, which has expressed a desire to become members of the Federation, is not officially recognized by the highest sports body of the corresponding state, the Federation Presidium reserves the right to study this situation and submit this issue for consideration by the Conference.

5.9. Members of the Federation have the right to attend and speak at all meetings of the Conference, run for the appropriate positions and vote on all issues on the agenda.

5.10. Members of the Federation have the right to freely withdraw from the Federation.

5.11. When joining the Federation, you must pay an entrance fee, the amount of which is determined by the Conference. The procedure for payment of membership and other property contributions is determined by this Charter and the internal documents of the Federation, approved by the Conference.

5.12. Federation members have the right to:

— participate in the administration of the Federation;

— in the cases and in the manner prescribed by law and this Charter, receive information about the activities of the Federation and get acquainted with its accounting and other documentation;

— to appeal against decisions of the bodies of the Federation, entailing civil law consequences, in the cases and in the manner prescribed by law;

— demand, acting on behalf of the Federation, in accordance with paragraph 1 of Article 182 of the Civil Code of the Russian Federation, compensation for losses caused to the Federation, in accordance with Article 53.1 of the Civil Code of the Russian Federation;

— to challenge, acting on behalf of the Federation, in accordance with paragraph 1 of Article 182 of the Civil Code of the Russian Federation, transactions made by him on the grounds provided for in Article 174 of the Civil Code of the Russian Federation or the laws on corporations of certain organizational and legal forms, and to demand the application of the consequences of their invalidity, and also the application of the consequences of the invalidity of void transactions of the Federation.

— on an equal footing with other members of the Federation to use the services rendered to them free of charge;

— elect and be elected (through their authorized representatives) to the governing bodies, control and audit body and other bodies of the Federation;

— enjoy the support, protection and assistance of the Federation;

— take part in all events and activities carried out by the Federation in accordance with its Charter;

— freely withdraw from the membership of the Federation by writing a free-form statement addressed to the Secretary General of the Federation.

5.13. Federation members are obliged to:

- participate in the formation of the property of the Federation in the required amount in the manner, method and within the time limits provided for by the Civil Code, other law or this Charter;
- not to disclose confidential information about the activities of the Federation;
- participate in the adoption of corporate decisions, without which the Federation cannot continue its activities in accordance with the law, if its participation is necessary for the adoption of such decisions;
- not to take actions knowingly aimed at causing harm to the Federation;
- not to take actions (inaction) that significantly complicate or make it impossible to achieve the goals for which the Federation was created.
- pay membership and other property fees stipulated by the charter;
- comply with the provisions of the Charter and implement the decisions of the elected governing bodies and the control and auditing body of the Federation, adopted within their competence;
- actively promote and through their representatives participate in the implementation of the statutory goals and main activities of the Federation;
- to contribute by their activities to increase the efficiency of the Federation;
- not to commit actions that violate the Charter of the Federation, the ethics of comradely relations, to refrain from activities that contradict the statutory goals proclaimed by the Federation.

5.14. Membership in the Federation is terminated in the following cases:

- voluntary withdrawal from the Federation;
- exclusion from Federation members in the cases provided for in clause 5.17. of this Charter.

5.15. Upon termination of membership in the Federation, property contributed to the Federation by a person who terminated membership in the Federation, including entrance fees, membership and other fees are not refunded.

5.16. Members of the Federation can be expelled from the Federation on one of the following grounds:

- in case of violation of the provisions of the Charter in terms of payment of fees and charges provided for members of the Federation or the rules for joining the Federation;
- in case of an omission in the development of Taekwon-Do GTF due to the inability to properly organize the work;
- in the case of pursuing goals that contradict the Charter of the Federation;
- in case of violation of the established rules and the Charter of the Federation;
- in case of refusal to comply with the decisions of the governing bodies of the Federation;
- in case of cancellation of documents ensuring the recognition of a member of the Federation by the supreme sports body of the relevant state (or in case of cancellation of state registration).

5.17. The decision to expel from the membership of the Federation is made by the Presidium by a qualified majority of 2/3 votes of those present in the presence of a quorum, if there are grounds provided for in clause 5.17 of this Charter.

5.18. The rights of a member of the Federation terminate from the moment the Presidium decides on exclusion.

5.19. Honorary members may be elected by the Federation Conference. Honorary members can be persons who have made a significant contribution to the development of the Federation. The number of honorary members of the Federation is not limited.

5.20. The status of an Honorary Member of the Federation is determined by the Regulations "On Honorary Members of the Federation" approved by the Presidium.

5.21. The registration of Federation members is carried out by the Presidium on the basis of the Regulations approved by the Conference.

An honorary member of the Conference does not acquire the rights and duties of a member of the Federation.

6. COMPETENCE AND PROCEDURE FOR FORMING THE GOVERNING BODIES AND THE CONTROL AND AUDITING BODY OF THE FEDERATION

6.1. The highest governing body of the Federation is the Conference, which is competent to make decisions on all issues of the Federation's activities.

6.2. The Federation Conference is held annually. In the year of the World Championship, meetings are held on the day preceding the start date of the GTF World Taekwon-Do Championship (Senior). The President, and in his absence the Secretary General of the Federation, presides over the Conference.

6.3. Extraordinary conferences may be convened at the initiative of the President, by decision of the Presidium, at the written request of the Control and Auditing Commission of the Federation or at the written request of more than 2/3 of the total number of Federation members.

6.4. Before the start of the Conference, representatives of the national Tae kwon Do GTF federations (clubs) present their mandates to the members of the credentials committee, appointed by the Presidium for each Conference separately. Mandates are duly signed documents sealed by the respective national Taekwon-Do GTF federation (club).

6.5. The Conference considers all the issues included in the agenda approved by the Presidium and sent by it to all national federations (clubs) of Tae kwon Do GTF together with invitations to participate in the Conference no later than, in less than 30 (thirty) days before the date of the Conference.

6.6. Issues proposed for inclusion in the agenda by the national federations (clubs) of Tae kwon Do GTF, which are part of the Federation, are submitted for consideration by the Presidium no later than, less than 10 (days) days before the date of the Conference. The issues, information about which was received by the Presidium after the expiry of the above period, are not considered.

6.7. The exclusive competence of the Conference includes the solution of the following issues:

6.7.1. Determination of the priority directions of the Federation's activities, the principles of education and the use of its property;

6.7.2. Approval and amendment of the charter of the Federation;

6.7.3. Determination of the procedure for admission to the membership of the Federation and exclusion from the number of its members;

6.7.4. Election of members of the Presidium for a period of 4 (four) years, early termination of their powers, additional election of members of the Presidium in case of expansion of the Federation's activities or in case of early termination of their powers;

6.7.5. Election of the President of the Federation for a period of 4 (four) years, early termination of his powers;

6.7.6. Election of the Vice-Presidents of the Federation for a period of 4 (four) years, early termination from office;

6.7.7. Election of the Secretary General of the Federation for a period of 4 (four) years, early termination of his powers;

6.7.8. Election of the Chairman and members of the Control and Auditing Commission for a period of 4 (four) years, early termination of their powers, prior to the election of members of the Control and Auditing Commission;

6.7.9. Approval of annual reports and accounting (financial) statements of the Federation;

6.7.10. Making decisions on the creation by the Federation of other legal entities, on the Federation's participation in other legal entities, on the creation of branches and the opening of representative offices of the Federation;

6.7.11. Appointment of an auditing organization or an individual auditor of the Federation;
6.7.12. Making decisions on the reorganization and liquidation of the Federation, on the appointment of a liquidation commission (liquidator) and on the approval of the liquidation balance sheet;

6.7.13. Adoption of decisions on the amount and procedure for payment by members of the Federation of entrance, membership and other property fees.

6.7.14. Consideration and approval of the reports of the Presidium and the Control and Auditing Commission of the Federation;

6.7.15. Making decisions on all issues and proposals of interest to the Federation, submitted by the national federations (clubs) of Taekwon-Do GTF and related to the development of Tae kwon Do GTF, in accordance with this Charter;

6.7.16. Adoption of decisions on all claims regarding the activities and decisions of the President, the Secretary General, the Presidium, as well as other bodies of the Federation;

6.8. The conference has the right to make decisions on any issues of the Federation's activities. The issues provided for in paragraphs. 6.3.1. - 6.3.16. of this Charter are attributed to the exclusive competence of the Conference and cannot be attributed to the competence of other bodies of the Federation.

6.9. A conference is considered competent if it is attended by delegates representing more than half of the members of the Federation. The rate of representation of delegates from members of the Federation is determined by the Presidium of the Federation. The President and members of the Federation Presidium are ex officio delegates to the Conference.

6.10. By decision of all delegates present at the Conference, the agenda of the Conference can be changed and / or supplemented. Decisions of the Conference on changing and / or supplementing the agenda, as well as on issues included in the agenda, are taken unanimously.

6.11. All decisions, including on issues of exclusive competence, provided for in paragraphs. 6.3.1. - 6.3.16. is adopted by a qualified majority of 2/3 of the votes of the delegates present from the Federation members in the presence of a quorum. The form of voting is determined by the Conference.

6.12. The conference is held in the form of a joint presence of Federation members to discuss issues on the agenda and make decisions on issues put to a vote.

6.13. If there is no quorum for the Conference, the date of the new Conference is announced. no later than 90 (ninety) days with the same agenda.

6.14. The minutes of the Conference are drawn up in 5 (five) copies. All copies are signed by the presiding officer of the Conference and the Secretary of the Conference.

6.15. The Conference provides the Federation members with the availability of Conference decisions for review by posting them on the Federation's official website on the Internet.

6.16. The procedure for preparing and holding the Conference is established by the internal documents of the Federation, approved by the decisions of the Conference.

6.17. In the period between the work of the Conference, the governing activity is carried out by a collegial permanent governing body - the Presidium. The Presidium is elected by the Conference by a qualified majority of 2/3 of the votes of the delegates present from the Federation members in the presence of a quorum, in the amount of at least four people, for a period of 4 (four) years. Members of the Federation Presidium may only include representatives of Federation members. The Presidium is supervised by the Conference.

Only individuals can be members of the Presidium.

The persons elected to the Presidium can be re-elected an unlimited number of times. By decision of the Conference, the powers of any member (all members) of the Presidium may be terminated early.

The following are entitled to propose candidates for election to the Presidium:

— Presidium;

— Legal entities are public associations that are members of the Federation.

Candidates for members of the Presidium must be nominated by legal entities - public associations that are members of the Federation, no later than 10 (ten) days before the date of the Conference, the agenda of which includes the issue of electing members of the Presidium, by sending a written proposal signed by an authorized person and containing the surname, name, patronymic of the candidate, as well as the justification for nominating him for election to the Presidium.

When considering candidates and making a decision on their inclusion (refusal to include) in the list for voting at the Conference, the Presidium has the right to supplement such a list with candidates at its discretion. The decision to include (refuse to include) a candidate on the list for voting at the Conference is made by a simple majority of votes of the members of the Presidium present at the meeting.

6.11. The Presidium consists of: the President, the Secretary General, the Vice Presidents and elected members of the Presidium.

The Presidium consists of no more than two representatives from each national Taekwon-Do GTF federation. Above the quota are taken into account: President, Secretary General and First Vice President of the Federation.

The following procedure is established for electing members of the Presidium and the President at the Federation Conference:

- first, elections of the President of the Federation are held;
- then the members of the Federation Presidium are elected;
- Secretary General, Vice-Presidents are elected from among the members of the Presidium upon the proposal of candidates by the President.

6.12. The right to be elected the head (president) of the national Taekwon-Do GTF federation, as well as another person who has submitted written recommendations to the national Taekwon-Do GTF federation corresponding to his citizenship (or nationality), are members of the Presidium. All candidates for the Presidium must be citizens (or nationals) of the country whose National Taekwon-Do Federation has nominated them. Applications for election to the Presidium are submitted to the Presidium no later than in 10 (ten) days before the date of the Conference.

6.13. New members may be elected at the Conference for vacancies in the Presidium arising due to the resignation of certain members from their positions. Federation.

6.18. The Presidium meets as needed, but at least once a year.

6.19. The competence of the Presidium includes the solution of the following issues:

6.19.1. Exercise of the rights of a legal entity on behalf of the Federation and performance of its duties in accordance with the Charter;

6.19.2. Control over the activities of the Secretary General of the Federation;

6.19.3. Maintaining the register of members of the Federation, admission to membership in the Federation, expulsion from the membership of the Federation;

6.19.4. Approval of annual estimates of expenses and income, approval of the financial plan of the Federation and amendments to it;

6.19.5. Approval of the staffing table of the Federation, as well as the size and procedure for remuneration of employees;

6.19.6. Development and approval of documents regulating the internal activities of the Federation;

6.19.7. Generalization of the proposal for amending and / or supplementing the Statute of the Federation with the subsequent submission of these proposals to the Conference;

6.19.8. Creation of commissions and committees, approval of the Provisions on them, other provisions in accordance with the Charter;

6.19.9. Control over the implementation of the decisions of the Conference;

6.19.10. Ensuring compliance with the provisions of the Charter, rules and regulations of the Federation;

6.19.11. Development of regulations and amendments (if necessary) to this Charter, the Taekwon-Do GTF rules and the regulations of the Federation;

6.19.12. Appointment of members of the credentials committee to the Federation Conference;

6.19.13. Consideration and approval of applications of candidates for holding official competitions of the Federation;

- 6.19.14. Reception of reports and documents from national federations (clubs) Tae kwon Do GTF;
- 6.19.15. Approval of the Tae kwon Do GTF rules and other provisions governing the activities of the Federation.
- 6.19.16. Decision-making on the use of property and funds of the Federation, organization of raising funds, determination of the size and directions of spending the funds of the Federation;
- 6.19.17. Approval of the reports of the Secretary General;
- 6.19.18. Development of Federation symbols with the subsequent submission of the issue for approval by the Conference;
- 6.19.19. Organization and holding of congresses, symposia, seminars, exhibitions, contests and other events on the statutory activities of the Federation;
- 6.19.20. Awarding prizes, prizes, scholarships in order to achieve the statutory goals of the Federation and within the powers of the Federation;
- 6.19.21. Informing the body that made the decision on the state registration of the Federation on the continuation of the Federation's activities, indicating the actual location of the permanent governing body, its name and data on its leaders of the Federation in the amount of information included in the unified state register of legal entities;
- 6.19.22. Informing the federal state registration body about the amount of funds and other property received from foreign sources, which are specified in paragraph 6 of Article 2 of the Federal Law "On Non-Commercial Organizations", about the purpose of spending these funds and the use of other property and about their actual spending and use in the form and within the time frame established by the authorized federal executive body;
- 6.19.23. Other issues that do not constitute the exclusive competence of the Conference, the Control and Auditing Commission, as defined by this Charter.
- 6.20. The Presidium is competent to make a decision if more than half of its members are present at the meeting.
- 6.21. Decisions are taken by a qualified majority of 3/4 of the votes of the members of the Presidium present at the meeting, with the exception of cases provided for by this Charter.
- 6.22. A meeting of the Presidium can be held both in the form of a joint presence of members of the Presidium to discuss agenda items and make decisions on issues put to a vote, or without holding a meeting by absentee voting (by poll). Meetings of the Presidium held in absentia are legally competent if more than half of the members of the Presidium participate in it. Such a vote can be carried out by exchanging documents by means of postal, telegraphic, teletype, telephone, electronic or other communications that ensure the authenticity of transmitted and received messages and their documentary confirmation.
- 6.23. All members of the Presidium must be informed about the proposed agenda for absentee voting, at least 10 (ten) days before the start of voting. The members of the Presidium have the right to familiarize themselves with all the necessary information and materials before the start of voting. The members of the Presidium have the right to make proposals on the inclusion of additional issues in the agenda, which must be communicated to the members of the Presidium before the start of voting. The deadline for the completion of the voting procedure is 3 (three) days. The protocol on the results of the absentee voting must indicate: the date before which the documents containing information on the voting of the members of the Presidium were adopted; information about the members of the Presidium who took part in the voting; the results of voting on each item on the agenda; information about the persons who carried out the counting of votes; information about persons
- 6.24. The Secretary General is obliged, no later than 10 (ten) days before the meeting of the Presidium, to notify all members of the Presidium of the date and place of the meeting of the Presidium, as well as issues to be considered.
- 6.25. Decisions made at a meeting of the Presidium are drawn up in minutes, which is drawn up no later than 5 (five) days after the meeting and signed by the chairman and secretary of the meeting. The President ensures that the decisions of the Presidium are available to the members of the Federation for review by posting them on the official website of the Federation on the Internet.

6.26. The procedure for preparing and holding a meeting of the Presidium is established by the internal documents of the Federation, approved by decisions of the Presidium.

6.27. The President of the Federation is the highest official of the Federation and is elected at the Conference by secret or open ballot (in accordance with the decision of the Conference) for a term of 4 (four) years, no more than 2 (two) terms in a row. The President is in charge of the Presidium and the activities of the Federation as a whole. The President is accountable to the Conference.

6.28. The Federation President is nominated by the National Federations.

6.29. Under normal circumstances, elections are held immediately after the candidates report on the main areas of the Federation's activities.

6.30. The President is responsible for directing the day-to-day activities of the Federation, for spending Federation funds and for recruiting administrative personnel.

6.31. The President represents the interests of the Federation at the international level.

6.32. The President has the right:

- to propose to the Conference candidates for the post of Secretary General, vice-presidents from among the members of the Presidium;

- create commissions and working groups and delegate to them part of their powers;

- to reimburse from the Federation funds the expenses of the members of the Presidium and other bodies of the Federation incurred by them in connection with representing the interests of the Federation, as well as the costs associated with the organization of representations, various events, travel and other expenses of interest to the Federation. All expenses must be justified and confirmed;

- exercise other powers that do not contradict the Charter and current Russian legislation, as well as the legislation of other states where members of the Federation operate.

6.33. If the position of the President becomes vacant for any reason, one of the Vice-Presidents shall act as President. The election of the President is held at the next Conference.

6.34. The Secretary General is the sole executive body and is elected by the Conference for a term of 4 (four) years, and may be appointed for a new term.

6.35. Competence of the Secretary General:

- represents the interests of the Federation in relations with international organizations, state authorities, local self-government bodies, and other organizations, regardless of their organizational and legal form, without a power of attorney;

- within the limits of its competence and the approved financial plan of the Federation, disposes of the property and funds of the Federation, within the budget approved by the Presidium, makes transactions and other legal acts that do not contradict the charter of the Federation and the legislation of the Russian Federation;

- opens settlement and other accounts of the Federation in banks;

- issues powers of attorney on behalf of the Federation;

- signs the official documents of the Federation concerning the financial and economic activities of the Federation;

- ensures the compliance of the Federation's activities with its statutory goals;

- coordinates the activities of the Federation and its members;

- coordinates the activities of working groups and commissions included in the structure of the Federation;

- approves the structure, staffing table, terms of remuneration of employees of the Federation, resolves issues of their social security and social insurance;

- issues orders, orders, instructions and other acts binding on Federation employees, applies disciplinary measures and incentives to them, distributes duties among Federation employees, determines their powers;

- makes decisions on filing claims and claims against legal entities and citizens on behalf of the Federation;

- reports to the Presidium on the work done
- carries out, within the framework of the legislation of the Russian Federation, any other actions necessary to achieve the statutory goals of the Federation, with the exception of those that, in accordance with this Charter, are attributed to the competence of the Conference, the Presidium and the President.

6.36. The Secretary General of the Federation can be a member of the Presidium, however, cannot be more than one quarter of the composition of the Presidium.

6.37. The rights and obligations of the Secretary General to carry out his activities are determined by the legislation of the Russian Federation, this Charter and the labor contract concluded by him with the Federation. The agreement with the Secretary General on behalf of the Federation is signed by the President of the Federation

6.38. Vice-Presidents are elected by the decision of the Conference for a term of 4 (four) years, they can be elected for a new term. The number of Vice Presidents is determined by the Conference.

6.39. Competence of Vice Presidents:

- Carry out operational management of the areas of activity entrusted to them by the President;

- They carry out the instructions of the Presidium and the President.

- Vice Presidents are members of the Presidium.

6.40. Vice Presidents act on behalf of the Federation on the basis of a power of attorney issued by them.

6.41. The Federation Conference may elect the First Vice-President for a term of 4 (four) years. The First Vice-President carries out the instructions of the President and the Federation Presidium.

6.42. The Control and Auditing Commission is a body exercising control over the financial, economic and statutory activities of the Federation.

6.43. The Control and Auditing Commission headed by the Chairman of the Control and Auditing Commission is elected by the Conference for a period of 4 (four) years in the number determined by the Federation Conference. Members of the Presidium and staff of the Federation cannot be members of the Control and Auditing Commission.

6.44. Competence of the Control and Auditing Commission:

- monitors the financial, economic and statutory activities of the Federation;

- monitors compliance with the Federation Charter;

- exercises control over the safety of property, spending of funds of the Federation;

- conducts an audit of the financial and economic activities of the Federation at least once a year;

- applies with a demand to hold an extraordinary Conference of the Federation.

6.45. Regular meetings of the Control and Auditing Commission are convened by the Chairman of the Control and Auditing Commission once a year. Extraordinary meetings of the Control and Auditing Commission may be convened at the initiative of the Chairman of the Control and Auditing Commission or by decision of the Control and Auditing Commission.

6.46. A meeting of the Control and Auditing Commission is competent if more than half of the members of the Control and Auditing Commission participate in the meeting.

6.47. Decisions are made by a simple majority of votes of the members of the Control and Auditing Commission present at the meeting, provided there is a quorum.

6.48. The holding of a meeting of the Control and Auditing Commission is drawn up in a protocol, which is signed by the chairperson of the meeting and the secretary keeping the minutes.

6.49. The Chairman of the Control and Auditing Commission is elected by the decision of the Conference for a period of 4 (four) years and is accountable to it. The Chairman of the Control and Auditing Commission may be elected for a new term.

6.50. Competence of the Chairman of the Control and Auditing Commission:

- directs the activities of the Control and Auditing Commission;

- determines the directions of activity of the control and audit commission;

- distributes functions among the members of the Control and Auditing Commission;
- convene regular and extraordinary meetings of the Control and Auditing Commission;
- organizes and conducts audits of the financial, economic and statutory activities of the Federation;

- signs documents of the Control and Auditing Commission;
- presides over the meetings of the Control and Auditing Commission.

6.51. The Presidium and all officials and staff of the Federation shall ensure that the Control and Auditing Commission is provided with all the necessary materials for the conduct of the audit.

6.52. The Federation has the right to conclude an agreement with a specialized auditing organization for the audit and confirmation of the annual financial statements (external audit). The external auditor is approved by the Conference.

7. PROPERTY AND FINANCIAL AND ECONOMIC ACTIVITIES OF THE FEDERATION

7.1. The Federation may own land plots, buildings, structures, housing stock, transport, equipment, inventory, cultural, educational and sports and health-improving property, cash, shares, other securities and other property necessary for material support of its activities specified in the Charter.

7.2. The Federation may also own institutions, publishing houses, mass media created and acquired at the expense of the Federation in accordance with its statutory goals.

7.3. The sources of formation of the Federation's property are:

- entrance and annual membership fees;
- voluntary contributions and donations;
- receipts from lectures, exhibitions, auctions, sports, cultural and other events held in accordance with the Charter of the Federation;
- income from business activities;
- income from civil transactions;
- income from foreign economic activity;
- other receipts not prohibited by law.

7.4. The Federation is the owner of its property. Its members do not retain property rights to the property transferred by them into the ownership of the Federation, including membership fees.

7.5. Members of the Federation are not responsible for the obligations of the Federation, in which they participate as members, and the Federation is not responsible for the obligations of its members. The Federation is responsible for its obligations with all of its property.

7.6. The following types of contributions are established in the Federation:

- entrance fee;
- annual membership fee;
- target contribution.

7.7. The procedure for determining the amount and method of payment of membership fees, the decision on making additional property contributions of members of the Federation to its property is determined by the Conference.

7.8. The deadline for payment of the admission fee is within 3 (three) months from the date of joining the Federation. The deadline for payment of the annual fee is within 3 (three) months from the end of the financial year. The term for payment of targeted and other additional property contributions is determined by the decision of the Conference, at which it was decided to make such contributions.

7.9. A member of the Federation has the right to receive information about the activities of the Federation and get acquainted with its accounting and other documentation by sending written requests addressed to the Secretary General. The Secretary General is obliged to consider the request and respond to it within 1 (one) month.

7.10. The Federation maintains accounting and statistical reporting in accordance with the procedure established by the legislation of the Russian Federation.

7.11. The General Director is responsible for the organization, condition and reliability of accounting, timely submission of the annual report and other financial statements to the relevant authorities in accordance with the legislation of the Russian Federation.

7.12. The financial year of the Federation begins on January 1 and ends on December 31.

8. ORGANIZATION AND HOLDING OF INTERNATIONAL COMPETITIONS

8.1. National federations (clubs) Tae kwon Do GTF take part in competitions organized by federations that are part of the Federation. National federations (clubs) of Taekwon-Do GTF, as well as their athletes, with the permission of the Federation Presidium, have the right to have sports ties with organizations that are not members of the Federation, or membership in the Federation is suspended. To the national federations (clubs) of Tae kwon DO GTF, athletes who violate the provisions of this Statute, disciplinary measures may be applied.

8.2. All international Tae kwon Do GTF competitions, as well as continental championships, championships and World Cups are held according to the rules of the International Tae kwon Do GTF Federation. Official competitions of the Federation are held in accordance with the Regulations for the organization and conduct of official competitions of the Federation.

8.3. Only athletes with a high level of training recommended by the respective national Tae kwon DO GTF federation (club) and who are citizens (or nationals) of the respective state are allowed to participate in the international competitions of the Federation. In exceptional cases, the decision on the admission of an athlete to participate in international competitions of the Federation is made by the Presidium of the Federation. All athletes (with the exception of those representing the host country) receive invitations to participate in the competition through their national Taekwon-Do GTF federations (clubs).

8.4. The national federations (clubs) of the Taekwon-Do GTF are responsible for organizing the internal Taekwon-Do GTF competitions.

9. INTERNATIONAL COMPETITIONS

9.1. All official international competitions are included in the competition calendar and approved by the Federation Presidium.

9.2. If, for objective reasons, the competition was not included in the competition calendar, the organizing country informs the Federation in advance and notifies the administrative body of the Federation about the date and place of the competition three months before the competition.

9.3. The results of the competition must be submitted to the General Secretary of the Federation no later than fourteen (14) days after the end of the competition, without fail.

9.4. National federations, organizers of international Taekwon-Do GTF competitions, undertake to timely fulfill their financial obligations to the Federation.

10. ANTI-DOPING CONTROL

10.1. The use of substances aimed at artificially increasing the athlete's performance is not allowed. In this case, the Anti-Doping Regulations of the Federation, the rules of the World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA) and the rules of the World Anti-Doping Code (WADC) apply.

10.2. Participants in competitions held under the auspices of the Federation, as well as officials and officials, must not interfere with the collection of samples for doping control.

10.3. The decision to impose sanctions on athletes, officials and federations who violate anti-doping requirements will be made in accordance with the Anti-Doping Regulations of the Federation, the World Anti-Doping Code (WADC) and the rules of the World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA).

11. SPECIAL PROVISIONS. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

11.1. All disputes arising between members of the Federation, members of Federation bodies, athletes and Federation bodies are subject to consideration by the Referee-Disciplinary Committee. In case of disagreement with the decision of the Referee-Disciplinary Committee of the Federation, an appeal is filed with the Presidium of the Federation, which has the right to independently reconsider the decision of the Referee-Disciplinary Committee of the Federation or refer this case for resolution to the Federation Conference. If it is impossible to resolve disputes within the framework of the Federation, the applicant has the right to apply to the appropriate courts, including the Court of Arbitration for Sport in Lausanne.

12. PROCEDURE FOR MAKING CHANGES TO THE CHARTER

12.1. These Statutes may be amended by the Conference. The decision to approve changes to the Charter is made by the Conference by a qualified majority of 3/4 of the votes of the delegates present from the Federation members, provided there is a quorum.

12.2. The charter with the approved amendments is subject to state registration in accordance with the procedure established by law and acquires legal force from the moment of such registration.

13. PROCEDURE FOR REORGANIZATION AND LIQUIDATION OF THE FEDERATION

13.1. The Federation can be reorganized in the manner prescribed by the Civil Code of the Russian Federation, the Federal Law "On Public Associations" and other federal laws.

13.2. The Federation, by the decision of the Conference, can be transformed into a public organization, an autonomous non-profit organization or a foundation.

13.3. The decision on the reorganization is made by the Conference by a qualified majority of 2/3 of the votes of the delegates present from the Federation members in the presence of a quorum.

13.4. The Federation may be liquidated on the basis and in the manner prescribed by the Civil Code of the Russian Federation, the Federal Law "On Public Associations" and other federal laws.

13.5. The decision on the liquidation and appointment of the liquidation commission (liquidator) is made by the Conference by a qualified majority of 2/3 of the votes of the delegates present from the Federation members in the presence of a quorum or by the court.

13.6. From the moment the liquidation commission (liquidator) is appointed, all the rights and powers to manage the affairs of the Federation are transferred to it. The liquidation commission (liquidator) acts in court on behalf of the Federation.

13.7. The liquidation commission (liquidator) shall publish in the mass media, in which data on the state registration of a legal entity are published, a message on the liquidation of the Federation and on the procedure and deadline for filing claims by its creditors. This period cannot be less than two months from the date of publication of the notice of liquidation.

13.8. The liquidation commission (liquidator) takes measures to identify creditors and receive receivables, and also notifies creditors in writing about the liquidation of the Federation.

13.9. At the end of the period for the presentation of claims by creditors, the liquidation commission (liquidator) draws up an interim liquidation balance sheet, which contains information about the composition of the Federation's property, the list of claims made by creditors, as well as the results of their consideration.

13.10. The interim liquidation balance sheet is approved by the Conference by a qualified majority of 2/3 of the votes of the delegates present from the Federation members, subject to the presence of a quorum.

13.11. If the funds available to the Federation are insufficient to meet the claims of creditors, the liquidation commission (liquidator) sells the Federation's property, on which, in accordance with the law, foreclosure is allowed, by auction, with the exception of objects worth not more than one hundred thousand rubles (according to the approved interim liquidation balance sheet), for the sale of which bidding is not required.

13.12. If the Federation's property is insufficient to satisfy the claims of creditors or if there are signs of bankruptcy of a legal entity, the liquidation commission (liquidator) is obliged to apply to the arbitration court with a petition for the bankruptcy of the legal entity, if such a legal entity can be declared insolvent (bankrupt).

13.13. The payment of sums of money to the creditors of the Federation is made by the liquidation commission (liquidator) in the order of priority established by Article 64 of the Civil Code, in accordance with the interim liquidation balance sheet from the date of its approval.

13.14. After the completion of settlements with creditors, the liquidation commission (liquidator) draws up a liquidation balance sheet, which is approved by the Conference by a qualified majority of 2/3 of the votes of the delegates present from the Federation members in the presence of a quorum.

13.15. The property remaining as a result of the liquidation of the Federation, after satisfying the claims of creditors, is directed to the purposes stipulated by the Charter of the Federation. The decision on the use of the remaining property is published by the liquidation commission (liquidator) in the press.

13.16. The liquidation is considered completed, and the Federation - ceased to exist after making an entry about it in the unified state register of legal entities.